Another ladies chorus that has performed at many church and civic functions is the "Choralettes," organized in 1957 by Mrs. Virginia Green. The group began with 15 members and by 1961 had grown to 45 singers. Mrs. Green has continued as director with Yvonne Miller, Diana Witt and Carole Harnden as accompanists and Thelma Wootton, narrator. Officers have been elected each year and have included Maryan Ryan, Clara Gardner and Ruth McGuire, presidents; Nelda Lee, Beva Welch and Merle Davis, vice presidents; Cleo Hiatt, Brenita Averett and Geneal Cutler, secretary-treasurers.

The group presents an annual concert each Spring and has been presenting proceeds of the concerts to Wasatch Stake for a new Stake Tabernacle. A yearly Christmas program is also presented in wards, schools and to private groups.

Still another musical activity in Heber has been a traditional Martial Band. Early settlers in the valley organized a fife and drum corps and their descendants have kept alive the tradition. Some of the first members includes James Shanks and Elisha Averett, leaders; Joseph M. Smith, A. Y. Duke, Dick Danielson, Lon Smith and Orrin Smith were early members. Robert Duke, Robert McKnight and Will Thacker, snare drummers and John Duke Jr., bass drummer. Descendants of these performers and others have kept the band alive during nearly a century of performing at holiday celebrations and patriotic occasions. More recent members of the group include Lon Smith, Seymour and Sterl Duke, Earl Dayton and Lowell Johnson.

The Heber Brass Band was also organized very early by the early settlers. It was organized with ten members and Thomas Perry who played a piano was the leader. Their pictures, Roger Horrocks, Robert McKnight, Thomas Perry, Alexander Fortie, Fred Clegg, Joseph A. Murdock, Dick Duke and Dr. Glanville, was taken with a pioneer old-folks party group in 1883. This band as the Martial Band was noted for

Choralettes Spring Concert

30 Apr 1970

TO BENEFIT— Teachers, Wilma Witt and Verdawn Nelson and students at Wasatch Children's Training Center display TV set to be given away at Choralettes' "By Request" show.

On May 9th at 8:00 p. m. in the Wasatch High School Auditorium, the Choralettes will present their annual Spring Concert. The program, "By Request" is just as the name indicates, made up of numbers selected from requests submitted by the people of the county.

The Choralettes, directed by Joyce Duke and accompanied by Carma Fillmore, are made up of some 36 busy ladies; most of whom are wives and mothers, and grandmothers. Many are employed outside of their homes and many are also active in other areas of church, civic and public interest. There are over 125 children and over 35 grandchildren claimed by the group.

Their combined efforts have raised funds for worthy causes from time to time and each year they offer a trophy to an outstanding music student in the graduating class.

The concert this spring will be highlighted by a drawing for a Portable Color Television Set. Tickets are being sold for $1.00 each and it is hoped that there will be a substantial amount obtained which will be donated to the Wasatch Children's Training Center to be used for anything they feel they need to better carry on their program.

The public is urged to support this effort. A large attendance at the concert will be appreciated, but the television will be awarded to the person whose ticket is drawn whether they are present or not, and no admission will be charged. Tickets on the set will be available at the door for those who desire.

Wasatch Choruses Send Soloists to Region Meet

13 Apr 1972

The choruses of Wasatch High School have been very busy this last term. After the production of Calamity Jane they started working on the preparation for the Solo and Ensemble Meet held March 29 at Morgan High School. A small mixed ensemble received a one rating, accompanied by one ratings given to soloists DeMont Grandy and Shirla Wall. A girls' small ensemble placed with a number two rating as did solists Brent Giles, Wayne Carlile, David Gardner, Karen Moulton, Linda Bond, Candace Webb, Kim Higgensen and Ricky Carlile.

Since this challenge is now behind the chorus they are preparing for the big chorus meet which is to be held in April. That same rating system is used at this meet as was used at Morgan.

The choruses would like to thank all those that made this trip and achievement possible.
